Partnership

Southwestern believes in providing a quality legal education by participating in and promoting exchange programs with schools outside of the United States.

As a member of the North American Consortium on Legal Education (NACLE), Southwestern students have the opportunity to study abroad for a semester at a member school in Mexico or Canada for the same cost as tuition they would pay for classes on campus.

Accommodations and Living Expenses

The campus has several student residences. Some of them are reserved for first-year students. The majority of incoming exchange students live off-campus. An off-campus housing service is available to assist them in finding housing. More information can be found here:

<http://www.residence.uottawa.ca/en/> Off-campus housing can range from approximately $650 to $925 per month.

Cancellation Policy

Southwestern reserves the right to cancel the Semester Exchange Program at the University of Ottawa at any time prior to the application deadlines for the program, or due to a U.S. State Department Travel Warning or Alert. Cancellation of the program will occur only if necessary for reasons beyond Southwestern's control, or if we are unable to rely on the host institution offering a meaningful educational experience. For cancellation that occurs after monies have been paid, all tuition money advanced by the student shall be refunded within twenty (20) days after the date of cancellation. Students who have paid a deposit or registered for the program also have the opportunity to withdraw from the program if there are changes in the course offerings or other significant aspects of the program and receive a refund of fees paid except for room and board payments. In the event of cancellation, students will immediately be notified by email, phone and U.S. mail. This program has not been cancelled in prior years.
