
Editor's Note

This issue is entirely devoted to articles from our 2018 symposium conference, entitled Fake News and "Weaponized Defamation": Global Perspectives, which drew scholars and practitioners to a packed lecture hall at Southwestern Law School in Los Angeles, California. Organized in partnership with the Southwestern Law Review and Southwestern International Law Journal, the symposium's Call for Papers yielded submitted abstracts from security concerns in response to an avalanche of false and damaging propaganda from Russian government-controlled channels.

Professor Jelena Surculija Milojevic writes about media legislation in complement with the journalism profession's Code of Ethics in the Republic of Serbia. Milojevic posits that Serbia's national courts misconstrue the terms "defamation" and "public figure" in ways that are inconsistent with the
