

Academic Policies and Procedures

Any graduate of Southwestern may return to take post-graduate courses as an alumni visitor. Alumni visitors receive a 50% reduction discount from current tuition rates and can take a maximum of 2 courses per term. All courses are taken on an audit basis (no letter grades). All alumni visitors must abide by the academic and general law school policies of Southwestern as stated in the Student Handbook. Alumni visitors are not allowed to receive credit for courses taken at Southwestern.
