

The Amicus Project Practicum (APP) is an independently scheduled course in which a student commits to undertake and complete a pro bono amicus brief under a specified timetable. The APP is 2 units and graded.

EJÜLÄNUN			ALANIO

 Day	Evening	Part-time Day	— PLFAS	901 F
				W.L.
(at time of pro	po sc u partic	ipation in the APF	7).
		_

1.	What type of case are you interested in briefing? (Check all that apply)
	State court	Federal Court	Criminal	avil	Administrative
	Other (Please spec	cify)
2.	Please specify you You may choose u	. •	ppics (e.g. Tele	ecom, Land	l Use, Crim Pro, etc.).
	a b
	C
3.	· · /	•	•	•	d like to brief? If so, on a sue you would like to arç	to brief? If so, on a separate sheet ou would like to argue.
4.	Please describe an	ny work, externship	or volunteer	experiena	e (past and present) rela	ted to your preferred legal topic(s) or appellate law. Include the name of the organization, the relevant dates and a brief description of your work and responsibilities. Please respond on a separate sheet of paper. Students without such experience are not preduded from enrolling in the APP.

6.	If you plan to work or extern, or enroll in a clinic or other practicum, state the days and times for your work. If you have certain dates or days and times of the week that you will not be available, please note that information next to the listed activity.
7.	Why are you interested in the Amicus Project Practicum? Include the reasons for your interest in appellate law, your preferred legal topic(s) and your interest in participating in a law school practicum. Please respond on a separate sheet of paper.
	***********************
au	submitting this application, I understand that it does not guarantee admission to the APP. I further thorize Southwestern to release my transcript, including electronically, in the event I am placed with upervisor external to Southwestern.